Situated in the classic country town of Lancefield, Grange Macedon Ranges is the perfect base for exploring the area's boutique vineyards, true country Farmers' Markets, antique shops and arts and crafts galleries.

Ideal for groups and family get-togethers Grange Macedon Ranges boasts plenty of leisure and sports facilities.

Guests can book the full size synthetic grass tennis court for an afternoon of fun, or take the time to relax in the sauna. In the summer months enjoy the large outdoor pool and spa. Whilst inside, the spacious guest lounge has comfy couches, an open fire, bar and pool table.

Light and spacious, each of the guest suites is tastefully furnished in a country style and include your own bar fridge, tea and coffee making facilities and remote control TV with Austar cable.

Dotted all around the Macedon Ranges there are plenty of local vineyards where visitors are welcome to step in and enjoy an afternoon of wine tasting.

As well as award winning wineries and local produce, this region has a network of pretty historic towns to discover. You can easily tour Mount Macedon with its glorious views, grand country houses and magnificent gardens. Or, take a picnic and go exploring at world famous Hanging Rock.
